

Thank you for keeping Library materials safe for the past couple of months. We are excited to be able to start safely accepting returns. Here's what you should know:

When Can I Return Materials?

- Outdoor Bookdrop will be open on weekends, Saturday and Sunday ONLY, to allow for a 72-hour quarantine of materials for the safety of our staff and public.

What About Due Dates and Fines?

- During these challenging times, no overdue fines will be charged. Please return materials on weekends only.

Can I Return Items If I Am at the Library for A Pickup Window Appointment?

- Do not leave returns or donations in the Pickup Lobby area or outside the building. The Bookdrop Return is open only on weekends to allow for a 72-hour quarantine of materials. This safe step is being taken to protect the public and staff.

What About Donations to the Friends of the Ridgefield Library?

- The Friends are not accepting donations at this time.

Can I Return Materials from Another Library?

- The State Library Delivery Service has very limited capacity at this time. Please do not return materials from another library to the Ridgefield Library. Return Ridgefield Library materials only to the Ridgefield Library.
